

Infant May Newsletter

May brings with it the promise of warmer days and the excitement of summer just around the corner. As we welcome the sunshine and budding flowers, we also celebrate the special occasions that make this month truly memorable. With Mother's Day approaching, we eagerly prepare handmade cards and crafts to honor the love and sacrifice of mothers, who nurture us each day.

This Month

This month brings not only flowers but a special day to honor the wonderful mothers in our lives. We will be crafting heartfelt surprises and celebrating the love and care that mom brings in our lives. Additionally, as Memorial Day draws near, we pause to reflect and pay tribute to the brave men and women who have served our country with courage and dedication. Parents will have the opportunity to interact with the teacher over the phone to discuss the growth and learnings of their kiddos.
